

The image shows the back of a black mobile phone with its cover removed. A white rectangular box is placed over the internal components on the left side of the phone. The text 'FCC ID Label Location' is printed inside this box. To the right of the box, the internal circuitry, including a SIM card slot and a speaker grille, is visible. The phone is resting on a light-colored, textured surface.

FCC ID
Label
Location